

Building an Effective SEND Improvement Plan

Course Information

Date: 17th June 2025

Venue: Online (Zoom)

Time: 09:15-11:45

Cost: £70 per delegate

Course Leader: Kate Whittlesey

Overview of Training:

Summer term is vital in ensuring that we are reviewing progress from this academic year and we are starting to consider appropriate next steps on our school improvement journey. This new online course will ensure that you have impactful, measurable, achievable and realistic targets for the year ahead to really ensure that you get the next academic year off to a flying start.

Course content:

- What is a quality SEND development/improvement plan and what are the keys parts to a plan?
- How should we be effectively reviewing our SEND development/ improvement plans and how can they support successful Ofsted conversations?
- How can we ensure that we are basing our new targets on evidence and into other school functions that are vital to success, whilst ensuring that they are SMART?
- How should a SEND improvement plan feed into whole school and other department plans?
- How do we measure improvement and report on progress throughout the academic year (eg SEND governance etc)?
